IMPORTANT

Your right to redeem units of Crown Hill Fund is subject to the conditions that apply to the Cash Alternative, as defined and described in the Crown Hill Fund Notice of Meeting and Management Information Circular dated August 27, 2009. This Redemption Notice must be received by your broker by the date indicated in your broker's instructions regarding the return of this Redemption Notice in order to be considered valid. Any Redemption Notice received after this date will not be processed.

If this Redemption Notice is not fully completed to the satisfaction of Crown Hill Capital Corporation this Redemption Notice may not be accepted and the units which are referenced in this Redemption Notice may not be redeemed.

To be valid, joint Redemption Notices must be signed by each beneficial owner if more than one beneficial owner.

A separate Redemption Notice is required for each brokerage account in which units are held.

In the case of a beneficial owner which is a partnership, Redemption Notices should be in the name(s) of and signed by all the partners.

Beneficial owners which are corporations must submit certified corporate resolutions authorising the redemption and identifying the corporate officer empowered to sign this Redemption Notice.

If this Redemption Notice is signed under a power of attorney, such power of attorney or a duly certified copy thereof must accompany this Redemption Notice.

To be effective, the beneficial owners of units of Crown Hill Fund must complete this Redemption Notice and follow their broker's instructions to deliver this Redemption Notice to their broker (so that their broker can forward it to Computershare Investor Services Inc. by no later than the close of business on September 28, 2009).
